Question Five: How much does your organization spend annually for electronic or electronic/print licenses for journals?.....	35
Question Six: How much does your organization spend annually for electronic or electronic/print licenses for the eBooks	36
Question Seven: How much does your organization spend annually for electronic or electronic/print licenses for the magazine/newspaper article indexes or full text	37
Question Eight: For 2010, how many independent licenses for electronic content (or such content combined with print) did your library maintain?	38
Question Nine: For 2011, how many independent licenses for electronic content (or such content combined with print) did your library maintain?	39

Question Ten: How much did your library spend for e-book licenses in 2009?	40
Question Eleven: How much did your library spend for e-book licenses in 2010?.....	41
Question Twelve: How much will your library spend for e-book licenses in 2011?.....	42
CHAPTER TWO: MOBILE COMPUTING	43
Question Thirteen: How important is it to you that your library's databases can be accessed through smartphones and other hand held digital devices?.....	43
Question Fourteen: Has patron use of the iPad and other tablet computers had any impact on the use of electronic resources at your library? If so what has been the impact and what do you expect in the near future?	44
Question Fifteen: How much have you spent in the past year on licenses or other content purchases specifically for Ebook reading devices (such as Kindle or Nook) or dedicated smartphone or tablet computer formats?	47
CHAPTER THREE: COVERAGE IN BLOGS, WIKIS, LISTSERVS, EZINES	48
Question Sixteen: Would you like to see blogs indexed and covered in the full text databases that you current use?	48
Question Seventeen: Would you like to see wikis indexed and covered in the full text databases that you current use?	49
Question Eighteen: Would you like to see listservs indexed and covered in the full text databases that you current use?	50
Question Nineteen: Would you like to see ezines indexed and covered in the full text databases that you current use?	51
Question Twenty: Would you like to see podcasts and videos indexed and covered in the full text databases that you current use?	51

Question Twenty-one: Rate how good a job that the database vendors used most frequently by your patrons and staff handle the indexing and access to wikis in their full text databases.....53

Question Twenty-two: Rate how good a job that the database vendors used most frequently by your patrons and staff handle the indexing and access to blogs in their full text databases.....55

Question Twenty-three: Rate how good a job that the database vendors used most frequently by your patrons and staff handle the indexing and access to ezines in their full text databases.....57

Question Twenty-four: Rate how good a job that the database vendors used most frequently by your patrons and staff handle the indexing and access to listservs in their full text databases.....59

Question Twenty-five: Rate how good a job that the database vendors used most frequently by your patrons and staff handle the indexing and access to videos or podcasts in their full text databases.61

Question Twenty-six: Many database vendors are struggling with the issue of how to index and include content from e-books and web 2 sources in their index and full text products. Many scholars now use blogs, listservs, wikis and other web 2.0 outlets as major information sources but these resources are often not reachable through database products. Should these worlds be joined? Kept apart? How do you feel database vendors should proceed, keeping in mind it may add additional costs to index and include cybersources.....63

CHAPTER FOUR: USE OF CONSORTIUMS67

Question Twenty-seven: In how many database licensing consortiums does the library participate (in which it has at least one active contract)?67

Question Twenty-eight: Contracts through consortiums account for what percentage of the library's total licenses for electronic content?	68
Question Twenty-nine: Over the past two years the percentage of content licensing contracts purchased through consortiums has... ..	69
Question Thirty: Your library feels that.....	70
Question Thirty-one: How could the consortium in which your institution participates better serve you? What steps might they take to help you get a better deal on database contracts?.....	71
Question Thirty-two: In the next few years do you expect to make a higher or lower percentage of your database purchases through consortia? Or will it remain about the same? Do you view consortia as a tool that you can increasingly utilize to reduce costs and extend your budget in tough times?	74
CHAPTER FIVE: CONTENT LICENSE PRICING ..	77
Question Thirty-three: Please estimate how much have prices increased for electronic and electronic/print combination journals in the the past year?.....	77
Question Thirty-four: Please estimate how much have prices increased for ebooks in the the past year?	78
Question Thirty-five: Please estimate how much have prices increased for indexes and full text newspaper and magazine databases in the the past year?	79
Question Thirty-six: Please estimate how much have prices increased for directories in the the past year?	80
Question Thirty-seven: Please estimate how much have prices increased for market research in the the past year?	81
Question Thirty-eight: Please estimate the approximate change in price of business and financial information licensed by your library in the past year.	82

Question Thirty-nine: Please estimate the approximate change in price of medical and biochemical information licensed by your library in the past year.	83
Question Forty: Please estimate the approximate change in price of engineering information licensed by your library in the past year.....	84
Question Forty-one: Please estimate the approximate change in price of humanities information licensed by your library in the past year.	85
Question Forty-two: Please estimate the approximate change in price of social sciences information licensed by your library in the past year.	86
Question Forty-three: Please estimate the approximate change in price of legal information licensed by your library in the past year.....	87
Question Forty-four: Please estimate the approximate change in price of general news information licensed by your library in the past year.	88
CHAPTER SIX: DISPUTES AND LEGAL EXPENDITURES	89
Question Forty-five: Approximately how many hours of professional legal assistance (from lawyers within or outside of your organization) did the library require for contract review or disputes in the past year?.....	89
Question Forty-six: To the best of your knowledge has the library ever been threatened by a publisher or information vendor with any form of legal action for contract abrogation, non-payment or any other reason?	90
Question Forty-seven: To the best of your knowledge, has your library ever threatened a publisher or information vendor with legal action over nonperformance or other contract abrogation or for any other reason?	91
CHAPTER SEVEN: CONTRACT TERMS	92
Question Forty-eight: As a best guess, what percentage of the electronic content licensing contracts that your library

signs require your organization to keep secret the financial terms of the contract?	92
Question Forty-nine: Choose the phrase which best describes your assessment of the awareness of librarians of the financial contract terms of peer institutions.	93
Question Fifty: Choose the phrase that best describes your personal experience in applying the term "fair use".	94
CHAPTER EIGHT: ELECTRONIC RESOURCES & INTERLIBRARY LOAN	96
Question Fifty-one: Which phrase best describes your library's attitude towards providing electronic materials via interlibrary loan?.....	96
Question Fifty-two: Which phrase best describes your library's attitude towards negotiating contract language on provision of interlibrary loan materials through email or other internet technology?	98
Question Fifty-three: Have you ever used an e-book lending service?.....	100
CHAPTER NINE: USE OF OPEN ACCESS RESOURCES	101
Question Fifty-four: Does your library track patron use of open access journals?	101
Question Fifty-five: What would you say has been the % rate of change in the use of open access journals by your patrons and staff in the past year?	102
Question Fifty-six: In the past year has your library deferred, postponed, canceled or reduced the scope and cost of any subscription by substituting equally valuable open access journals? How has the growing prevalence of open access journals affected your licensing and procurement efforts?	103
Question Fifty-seven: Has the library ever paid an article processing fee for an author?	105
Question Fifty-eight: Has your library or any other department at your organization made any effort to track

submissions and publications by faculty in open access journals? If so can you describe this effort?	106
Question Fifty-nine: What percentage of journal articles acquired from other institutions (when your own library does not have a journal in its collection and needs an article for a patron) come from the institutional digital depositories of other institutions, or from a digital depository consortium?	107
Question Sixty: Status of institutional digital repository	108
Question Sixty-one: About what percentage of your institution's original published scholarly output in the past year would you say is deposited in your library's institutional digital repository?	110
Question Sixty-two: How has the growing use of institutional digital repositories impacted your library? Has it enabled your library to reduce costs or to shift resources to other needed areas?	111
CHAPTER TEN: USE OF GRATIS RESOURCES	113
Question Sixty-three: Many journal publishers now make access to back issues of their journals free to the public after an "embargo" period, often of 1-2 years. For journals that your library does not subscribe to, would you say that:	113
Question Sixty-four: What is your estimate of the percentage of total article requests from faculty or other library patrons for journals that are not in your collection, that are satisfied by downloads or accesses of these free back files offered by some journal publishers?	115
Question Sixty-five: To what extent do library patrons at your institution make use of Google Scholar?.....	116
CHAPTER ELEVEN: COURSE RESERVES.....	117
Question Sixty-six: For copyright clearance for course reserve and other materials the library.....	117
Question Sixty-seven: Your course materials on electronic reserve are... ..	118

Question Sixty-eight: Your attitude towards the elimination of paper based materials in course reserve and the adoption of all electronic reserves is... 119

CHAPTER TWELVE: LICENSE RENEWAL DECISION-MAKING PROCESS 120

Question Sixty-nine: In the next year, what percentage of the library's content licensing contracts that come up for renewal does the library expect to renew? 120

Question Seventy: How many databases did the library test on a free-trial basis within the past year?..... 121
