Evanced Solutions Announces Summer Reader 2011 Release

Mobile web-enabled interface, improved page editing, and more included in newest version

Indianapolis, IN – February 24, 2011 – Evanced Solutions has announced that the newest version of its popular Summer Reader software will be available March 1, 2011.

The new features, based on customer feedback, include :

- a mobile web-enabled interface for registration and logging
- an improved style sheet editor
- seamless integration with Ebsco's Novelist Select
- improved prize descriptions and tracking for staff
- plus many other additions, listed at <http://bit.ly/sr-release-2011>

"Our newest upgrade helps both library patrons and staff interact with Summer Reader more easily," explained Todd Cutler, CEO and Founder of Evanced Solutions. "The ability to use Summer Reader on smart phones through the mobile web interface further extends the reach of our online reading software."

Summer Reader is used by more than 1,500 libraries in 49 states. The software enables library staff members to easily build online reading programs, manage reading logs and prizes, and run statistical reports. Library users interact with Summer Reader to register for reading programs, log reading time, read and write book reviews, see prizes they've earned, and even opt to post their latest reading activity on Facebook.

Headquartered in Indianapolis, Indiana, Evanced Solutions offers software and dedicated service for libraries of all types and budgets. Online tools include event calendaring with online registration (Events), meeting room booking (Room Reserve), summer reading management (Summer Reader), and library materials vending (BranchAnywhere), all designed to better attract and engage the communities libraries serve.
