Evanced Solutions Offers Online Pay Option in New Release

Indianapolis, IN – July 22, 2010 – Evanced Solutions announced today that Version 7 of both Events and Room Reserve is now available. The two web-based software systems can work alone or together to create powerful management tools for libraries of all sizes.

“Version 7 is a result of our customers asking for enhancements in reporting options for both Events and Room Reserve,” explained Rob Cullin, Vice-President and Chief Sales Officer for Evanced. “Many libraries are also charging patrons for programs and events and we wanted to ensure they could easily and safely take payments with as little stress as possible. We think our new online payment feature fills that need,” Cullin added. The ability for library patrons to make online payments for room reservations has been a part of Evanced Solutions’ Room Reserve software, but Version 7 extends the capability to Events, allowing library patrons to pay for program fees if the library charges.

New features in Events include:

- Ability for patrons to pay by credit card for library programs and events requiring payment
- Ability to save report options and run future reports more quickly
- Addition of more search criteria for enhanced reporting

Room Reserve users will find new features including:

- Ability to save report options for quick loading
- Improved ability to select displayed columns in reports
- Room schedule lists now include contact information with the room information
